

2011 HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARDS

1919 - "Dahlman House", 205 E. Park Boulevard

Kurt and Bridget Zito received a Historic Preservation plaque, for their large, two story Prairie-style house. Situated on a large corner lot at 205 E. Park Boulevard, it was built in 1924 by Charles Heisen, an early developer of the community. It is named the "Dahlman House" for its first owner and is part of the C.C. Heisen Resubdivision of November, 1919. The house was designed to utilize unusually narrow windows that had been purchased in large quantity at a good price.
