

2014 Historic Preservation Awards

1928 – “NACK HOUSE”, 400 S. Illinois Avenue

Ronald and Teresa Wedel received a Historic Preservation Award for their large, brick c.1928 English Tudor style house that is named the NACK HOUSE, after its first owner. It is located on 400 South Illinois Ave. With its multiple gable tiled roof, it is a very striking home that was featured on a local house walk.