

2009 HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARDS

1911 - "Hamilton House", 249 S. Villa Avenue

Prairie style Bungalow located at 249 S. Villa Avenue and built by Charles Heisen, an early developer of Villa Park. It features many leaded and stained glass windows and lovely woodwork. It is named the "Hamilton House" after its original owner and was built in 1911. For over twenty years it was occupied by John C. Sterett, another significant developer of early Villa Park.

Prepared by Carol Marcus, Chair - Villa Park Historical Preservation Commission 2009