

2012 HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARDS

Return

1947 - "Salzman House", 113 E. Madison Street

Alfred and Valerie Flammini received a Historic Preservation plaque for their attractive, solidly-built brick two-story Georgian Revival-style house. It is located at 113 E. Madison Street and is part of the Robertson's Madison St. Subdivision of Ardmore. It is named the "SALZMAN HOUSE" after its original owner and was built in 1947 by A.L. Salzman & Sons, local Chicago area builders. Marshall Salzman had lived in this house for several years.