

2009 HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARDS

1911 - "Wm. E.F. SEAR House", 237 S. Villa Avenue

Large vine-covered 2 ½ story English Tudor farmhouse located at 237 S. Villa Avenue. It was built in 1911 and is named the "Wm. E.F. SEAR House" after the original owner. In 1954, the Piersons' bought this house that had been owned by family members since 1942. On the large side yard there is a lovely hosta garden containing many species cultivated by the current owner.
